

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The department of pedodontics offers undergraduate training in pediatrics and preventive dentistry. During the undergraduate program the batch of 100 students are introduced to the basics of subjects and the aim is to prepare them to handle the child patient with confidence during their professional career. The undergraduate program receive Extensive clinical and didactic training in preventive dentistry Through seminars lectures and clinical training demonstrations including comprehensive care of as well as Special needs children and adolescents , Restorative dentistry , Pulp therapy , Pharmacological and non pharmacological behaviour management Techniques , space Maintenance , orthodontic therapy, Growth and development Treatment of patients , Treatment of patients in the operation theatre under general anaesthesia and management of traumatic injuries and emergency care.

